

POINTERS
ON THE SIDE

Emma: You have been complimented for your excellent work. Strict discipline is what is necessary.

Estelle: A young lady should be well supplied with escorts. Never depend on the company of one male.

Olga: Your letter was too indiscreet. It is in bad taste to use vulgar terms or slang, always display good manners.

Lulu: It was Fred Douglass who first offered a son to Major Andrews. History of the negro soldiers will enlighten you.

Ella: Old coals will kindle some times. Fond recollections of the past generally recalls to one's mind loving events.

F. P. Do not expose your ignorance to young men. They often take advantage of it.

M. R. Dressing is an art and few girls seem to appreciate the fact. You should always dress with taste.

D. T. Nothing is more distasteful than to see a crowd of girls assemble gossiping about frivolous matters. Useful and beneficial topics should always occupy the mind of a young girl.

S. T. Too much familiarity often leads to disagreements and unpleasantness. Never allow yourself to get too familiar with any one.

B. M. It is generally the rule. One is very seldom sought after until some thing is needed. Some girls are deceitful.

J. T. Society should be polished and polite. A loud laugh portrays a vacant mind.

Olga: You should have resented the insult at once. A pretentious man will pretend that he has great interest in your welfare.

Basic: Take my advice and never go on a common excursion. I am opposed to girls going on excursions unaccompanied by parents.

N. B. You did the right thing to refuse advances offered you. The manner was vulgar as well as the place.

C. W. Such a person who pretends to so many should not be trusted.

E. S. It makes no difference whether you were engaged to him or not. Circumstances have separated you. The friendship that once existed should not be tolerated, if you have accepted an engagement ring from another, give him to understand in plain English that his company is not acceptable.

D. H. If you girls will permit long courtship, it is your fault. I have a poor opinion of a young lady who would ask for a present from a gentleman to whom she is engaged.

E. Never place yourself under obligations to any one. It is better to be poor than to place yourself in such a position.

Jeanette: My opinion is that your manners were rather rude. Sedateness and polite manners will win all the time.

Minnie: You should always attend to business as you are directed. Never talk your business to other people.

Marion: You can be pleasant always, but be positive in your business relations.

It is quite easy for one to misjudge your meaning.

L. E. S. Your selection should be appreciated, I am sure. You should remember however, that an intelligent girl should not marry below her station, nor should she be intellectually a man's inferior.

V. M. One's house affairs should not be exposed to the neighborhood.

Talkative girls are not to be trusted with secrets. My advice is to confide in but a few.

M. B. C. Never attempt to look upon one with contempt. You never know when you will be compelled to go to him for aid and succor.

E. O. I would advise you to be honest in your dealings with your associates. Nothing commends a young woman more than honesty. You must be a positive character. When a young man loses confidence in you, it would be better to find another companion. A young lady that commands the respect of any man is a jewel.

Flirtation: In reply to your letter of recent date, I would suggest that you discontinue such practice. A few men have confidence in a young girl who obtains her acquaintance by flirtation. No refined and cultured young lady will carry on flirtation with any man, no matter who he may be. I have but little faith in office holders. A majority of them spend their money before it is drawn.

Anna: It is in bad taste to allow a young man to meet you at a place of amusement. He should certainly take one evening off to escort you to the place of amusement.

Punch cards: No young lady should take punch cards to solicit money. It is vulgar and no lady of refinement and education would be guilty of such impropriety, money for churches should be collected differently. The lady will either be insulted or her intentions may be misconstrued.
